

The Public Education Foundation Donor Privacy Policy

The Public Education Foundation is committed to respecting the privacy of our donors. This policy applies to all information received by The Public Education Foundation, both online and offline, on any platform, as well as any electronic, written or oral communications.

Personal Information

Personal information is information that identifies you personally, such as your name, address, telephone number, and email address. We collect and store the personal identifiable information that you provide to us.

Uses and Disclosure of Personal Information

- We do not sell, trade or share our donor's names or personal information, collected on the website or through any other business activities, with any other entity, nor send mailings on behalf of other organizations.
- We will only share personal information if donors give us specific permission to do so.
- We collect payment information, billing address and other information necessary to process a donation or event registration.
- We use your data to maintain records of donation, send acknowledgements, send newsletters and send other direct mail pieces.
- To the extent any donations are processed through a third-party service provider, our donors' information will only be used for the purposes necessary to process the donation.
