Recipient must plan to attend a four-year college/university full-time, and it is strongly preferred Recipient lives on campus during the freshmen and sophomore years absent extenuating circumstances. The goal is to attend a four year college or university with the opportunity to graduate debt-free in four years. Attending a Nevada four-year public university (currently UNLV, University of Nevada Reno, or Nevada State University) is encouraged. Recipients may attend an out-of-state university if it appears that they will be able to graduate debt-free. Recipient should be focused on academics. During the first academic year, Recipient is discouraged from working during the first academic year. After the first year, Recipient is discouraged from working more than 8 hours per week. This limitation does not apply during winter or summer breaks.

One annual Scholarship in an amount up to $25,000 will be awarded. The Scholarship may be renewed annually up to $25,000 for a cumulative total up to $100,000 over four years provided each year the Recipient continues to be enrolled on a full-time basis and maintains a cumulative GPA of at least 2.0. Verification of college enrollment (class schedule) will be required before Scholarship funds are distributed. Scholarship funds will be applied towards tuition, room and board, fees and other appropriate educational expenses.

Additional Requirements and Conditions The primary objective of the Scholarship is to provide educational funds which supplement rather than supplant any other educational funds available to Recipient in the form of federal, state or private grants, scholarships, waivers, tuition assistance, credits and any other funds (collectively, “Other Aid”) and which do not require repayment thereof or require Recipient to engage in a work study program. Accordingly, as a condition to receiving Scholarship funds Recipient must provide satisfactory evidence to PEF of the following: (1) Upon being notified of the Scholarship award, Recipient will promptly apply for all Other Aid reasonably available to Recipient, including without limitation completion and filing the Free Application of Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) (assuming Recipient has not already done so); and (2) Provide PEF with the Cost of Attendance form (or its equivalent) immediately upon receipt of same to enable PEF to ascertain the amount of educational costs after considering the amount and sources of Other Aid. Recipient acknowledges PEF will not distribute to or apply for the benefit of Recipient any Scholarship funds until and unless Recipient complies with the foregoing requirements. The requirements shall apply and be effective throughout the duration of the Scholarship on a semester-by-semester basis or such other frequency or times as may be required to qualify for Other Aid. Furthermore, Recipient will promptly provide PEF with any and all responses received by Recipient in response to any application for Other Aid (whether received or not). PEF will have the sole and absolute discretion to determine the amount, duration, method and timing of all Scholarship payments to or on behalf of Recipient. PEF may from time to time modify any conditions or establish new conditions or procedures to ensure the Scholarship funds supplement and do not supplant Other Aid available to Recipient. Recipient will have no right to Scholarship funds which are not expended or distributed by PEF for Recipient’s educational costs. The Scholarship may be suspended or revoked by PEF in the following events: (i) Recipient fails to use his or her best efforts to timely provide full and complete information related to the Other Aid to PEF, or (ii) Recipient provides PEF with false, misleading or incomplete information related to the Other Aid.

Future Leaders of Hospitality Program 2027

Southern Nevada high school seniors and UNLV freshmen and sophomores who are current Nevada residents with a GPA of 3.0 or higher may apply for this scholarship. Applicants must plan to obtain a bachelor’s degree in hospitality, hotel management, food and beverage, culinary arts, or a related field.

Students must plan to enroll full-time during the academic year following the scholarship award. Total annual family income must be less than $70,000, and financial need will be considered. Applicants must complete the FAFSA because it is used to determine the amount HCF will contribute each semester.

Multiple scholarships will be awarded, with preference given to students who attend or plan to attend UNLV. HCF is a last-dollar scholarship program, meaning the scholarship amount is determined after Pell Grants, Public Education Foundation scholarships, and other applicable financial aid have been awarded. HCF then helps cover the student’s remaining eligible tuition, fees, and book expenses, up to the program’s annual maximum.

For students attending UNLV, the scholarship may cover tuition, fees, and books up to a maximum of $8,750 per year. For students attending an out-of-state college, the scholarship may provide up to $12,000 per year. The exact award amount will vary based on the student’s other financial-aid awards. The number of scholarships awarded will be determined annually.

Scholarship funds will be sent directly to the student’s college each semester. Scholarships awarded to high school seniors are renewable for up to three additional years, provided the student maintains a GPA of 3.0 or higher each semester. For students already enrolled in college when selected, the scholarship may be renewed through their fourth year of college, provided they maintain a GPA of 3.0 or higher each semester.

Finalists will be required to provide a copy of their FAFSA during a scheduled interview. Each scholarship recipient will be paired with a different mentor from the hospitality industry every academic year. Students who participate in the program for four years will have worked with four mentors by graduation, providing them with a broader network of guidance, support, and industry connections.

Verification of enrollment is required each semester. Student must be enrolled as a full time student and must accept and use the scholarship upon award. Students must submit their class schedule and transcript.

Goodie Two Shoes Foundation INTERNSHIP-BASED Scholarship 2027

At the Goodie Two Shoes Foundation, we believe in the power of young people who give their time to lift others. This intern-based college scholarship exists to support students who share our heart for service. If you love community and want to make a real difference while in college, we invite you to apply.

What You'll Receive → One scholarship of $5,000 will be awarded, paid out across two semesters at $2,500 per semester. To continue receiving funds each semester, you'll need to maintain a 3.0 higher education GPA. Even better, this scholarship may be renewable annually, if you keep that 3.0+ GPA each semester. Your dedication can keep paying off, year after year.

- Who Can Apply → (We welcome applications from:)
- • Nevada high school seniors
- • Freshmen and sophomores currently enrolled at CSN, UNLV, or Nevada State
- • Other local Las Vegas higher-education students may also be considered, as long as you can fully meet our intern hours requirement without limitation

- Eligibility Requirements → (To be considered, you'll need to meet the following:)
- • Academic standing: A minimum weighted 3.5 high school GPA OR a 3.0 college GPA
- • A record of community service: We want to see your previous or current commitment to helping others
- • Financial need: A statement of financial need is required
- • Household income: Your combined household income must be less than $250,000 annually
- • Personal transportation: Reliable, personal transportation is required (more on why below)
- • Service Hours Commitment: Intern Scholar(s) must commit to completing a minimum of 50 volunteer hours per semester, totaling 100+ hours per school year.

The Intern Hours Commitment → This scholarship is built around service, so hands-on involvement is at its core. As a recipient, you'll be required to volunteer a minimum of 50 hours per semester, totaling 100+ hours per school year.

Here's what that looks like in practice: → • Fridays are essential. Most of your hours will be completed with GTSF, primarily on Fridays between 8:00 a.m. and noon. Friday morning availability is critical to this role. • Some weekday flexibility. Additional weekday business hours may be available to help you meet your per semester hours requirements. Our regular office hours are Monday through Thursday, 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. • On Fridays, GTSF is usually off-site hosting shoe distribution events from 7:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., then back in the office only until around 3:00 p.m.

Why Transportation Matters → Reliable, personal transportation isn't just a nice-to-have, it's a must. Here's why: • Our offices are located at Buffalo/215, quite a distance from UNLV, and public transportation in the area is limited. • Each Friday, we host shoe distribution events at different locations throughout the city. These sites change weekly, so you'll need dependable transportation to reach them and complete your hours.

One Important Note To keep your focus on academic success while meeting the required GTSF Intern Scholarship hours commitment, the winning scholar cannot be part of any other higher-education, internship-based scholarship program.

Every Friday, GTSF gives children in need the gift of brand-new shoes and the confidence that comes with them. As a GTSF Intern Scholar, you become part of that mission, turning your time into real change for young lives in our community. If you're ready to serve, grow, and make a lasting impact, we can't wait to see your application.
